Nominate a beneficiary

You may choose to nominate a Reversionary Beneficiary OR make a Binding Death Benefit Nomination to receive your benefit if you die.

It is not compulsory to nominate a beneficiary.

You can read more about nominating a beneficiary on our website, including conditions such as eligible beneficiaries and more.

Your reversionary beneficiary nomination:

Your reversionary beneficiary, if eligible at the time of your death, will continue to receive your regular pension payments at that time, or they may choose to take some or all of the balance of your Income Stream account as a lump sum.

Surname: _____

Given names: _____

Date of birth: ____/____/____

- Relationship to you: ☐ Spouse/partner
- ☐ Child under 18, permanently disabled or financially dependant on you under age 25
- ☐ A financial dependant
- ☐ Someone in an interdependency relationship with you

You can change or cancel your reversionary beneficiary nomination in future if you need.

A form to do this is available on our website.

Your Binding Death Benefit Nomination

If you do not wish to nominate a reversionary beneficiary, you may complete a binding death benefit nomination instead.

The person (or people) you nominate, if eligible, will receive some or all your account balance at your death.

You may also nominate your legal personal representative (this is your executor or administrator) who will deal with your benefit as they administer your estate.

To nominate, download and complete the Binding Death Benefit Nomination form, including having it witnessed, and post it back. We cannot accept scanned copies of the form.

Further information

Tax information

Benefits paid in cash may be subject to tax if you are under the government preservation age.
If you want to claim a tax deduction for any personal contributions, you must lodge an ATO 'Notice of Intent to Claim' form before being paid a cash lump sum or rolling your super to an Income Stream or to another super fund.

Proof of ID

Before we can make any cash payment to you, including any pension payment from your Income Stream or Transition to Retirement Pension, you must provide proof of identity.

This can be a certified copy of either your drivers licence or passport.

You can find further information on other documents you may use to prove your identity on the Completing proof of identity page on our website.

When are benefits accessible?

Benefits in Division 2, 4 or 5 cannot be accessed until you have ceased employment on or after age 55 (other than earlier death or invalidity).

Your privacy

We will always treat your personal information with care. See www.electricsuper.com.au/privacypolicy for our privacy policy.

Why we ask for specific information on this form

Your division

Each ElectricSuper division has different rules and conditions. By providing details of which division you are in, we know which rules and conditions apply to your benefit payment.

Your age/work status

Preserved superannuation benefits cannot be paid unless you meet a condition of release, such as:

- you are at least 65 years old, or
 - you are at least 60 years old and have ceased employment since reaching age 60,
 - you are at least 60 years old, have ceased employment and have permanently retired from the workforce.
- Gainful employment means that working for gain or reward in any business, trade, profession, calling, occupation or employment),
 - Permanent retirement is never being gainfully employed for more than 10 hours a week)

By advising us of your age and work status, we can be sure that you are eligible to access your super.

If you don't meet any of these 3 criteria, you may have access to an unrestricted non-preserved component, which is why we ask for that information.

Your residential address

To meet our obligations to address fraud, money-laundering and to help counter terrorism financing, we need to collect your residential address.

Your email address

Communicating by email is faster for us and easier for you, as you can access your letters wherever in the world you are.

When you provide your email, we will use your email to correspond with you, but will treat your email in line with our privacy policy, which you can access on our website.

Your residency or citizenship status

The ability to pay a cash benefit (and any applicable tax) may be affected by your residency or citizenship status.
