Annual caps (limits) apply to the amount you can contribute after-tax before incurring additional tax. See www.ato.gov.au for information about the current caps. You can see how your contributions are tracking against the caps for the current year in the secure area of the ElectricSuper website.

If you wish to contribute by cheque, please write this on the form and enclose your cheque with the form.

Claiming a tax deduction

If you wish to claim a tax deduction for this contribution, you will need to complete a Notice of Intent To Claim form, available from the ATO website. You need to claim for any deductions before rolling your super to an Income Stream, to another super fund or before being paid a cash lump sum.

If you are aged 67 to 75 years old or older, you also need to meet the Work Test (or the Work Test Exemption) if you wish to claim a tax deduction for the contribution. More information about the Work Test and Work Test Exemption requirements can be found on the ATO website.
